The New York Initiative for Children of Incarcerated Parents

SEE and SUPPORT Children of Incarcerated Parents this October

1 in 14 children experience parental incarceration.

This means at least one child in every classroom.

This October, join SEE US, SUPPORT US (SUSU), a month of national awareness to increase support for children of incarcerated parents. This year, SUSU focuses on supporting children's physical health and emotional wellbeing.

- ▶ Learn how to support children and young adults in health and mental health settings, and beyond.
- ▶ Find self-care tips and resources for coping with parental arrest, incarceration, and reentry.
- ▶ Hear from young people about how best to support and collaborate with them.
- ▶ Gain strategies for creating judgement-free, nurturing environments.

Join the SEE US, SUPPORT US conversation:

- ▶ Visit www.susu-osborne.org to access resources, celebrate young people, engage in calls to action, and sign up for events.
- ▶ Join the SUSU Network to receive updates throughout the year.
- ▶ Follow us on social media.
- ▶ If you experienced parental incarceration, enter the SUSU Art contest: bit.ly/SUSU_Art

Children of Incarcerated Parents'
Bill of Rights*

7. I have the right
not to be judged, blamed, or labeled because of my parent's incarceration.
