The New York Initiative for Children of Incarcerated Parents

SEE and SUPPORT Children of Incarcerated Parents this October

1 in 14 children experience parental incarceration.

Children and parents need support during and after a parent's incarceration.

#SeeUsSupportUs

SEE US, SUPPORT US (SUSU) creates a community for and raises awareness about children of incarcerated parents, centering their strengths, voices, and needs. This year we focus on a parent's reentry, which can be joyous and challenging for children.

Follow SUSU month on social media during October to:

- ▶ Learn how to support children from the point of a parent's arrest through reentry.
- ▶ Hear from young people about how best to support and collaborate with them.
- ▶ Learn tips for creating judgement-free, nurturing environments for children.

If you've experienced parental incarceration, follow SUSU to:

- ▶ Find resources and support to help you navigate your parent's incarceration and reentry.
- ▶ Listen to podcasts, see art, and find advice from youth with incarcerated parents.
- ▶ Enter the SUSU Art contest! bit.ly/SUSU_Art

Join the SUSU Network to receive updates throughout the year. Visit www.susu-osborne.org to access resources, celebrate young people, and engage in calls to action year-round.
